

Apuntes: Direct Object Pronouns

Miren la presentación de Keynote y llenen los espacios con la información correcta:

Slide 1: ¿Qué necesitas para trabajar en la cocina?

1. ¿Cuál palabra se repite muchas veces? _____

2. Do you think there is an easier way to say these questions and sentences?
Why?

Slide 2: To avoid saying “receta” so much...

3. How do we avoid saying words over and over again when speaking in Spanish?
What do we use?

4. What are the different words used to replace nouns that serve as direct objects?

5. These pronouns are dependent on the _____ and _____ of the noun.

Slide 3: ¡Ahora practica tú!

6. Answer the example questions on this slide: Hint: Place the DOP before the conjugated verb.

¿Comes el brocoli? _____

¿Miras la televisión? _____

¿Tienes tus libros? _____

¿Usas las frutas? _____

Slide 4: Grammar Presentation

7. Can direct object pronouns replace people too? What are some examples of this?

Slide 5: Por ejemplo

8. There are two ways one can place direct object pronouns when the verb is compound (meaning it is comprised of a conjugated verb and an infinitive). What are they?

9. List the two examples from this slide on the lines below:

a. ¿Vas a comer la pasta? _____

b. ¿Vas a comer la pasta? _____

Slide 6: ¡Ahora practica tú!

10. Answer the questions on the slide. Remember there are two ways to answer each question:

a. ¿Vas a hacer la torta?

b. ¿Vas a comer los huevos?

c. ¿Vas a escribir el correo electrónico?

Slide 7: Algo más

11. What are the three additional DOPs used to take the place of people?

Slide 8: When do we use these pronouns?

12. Write the three example sentences from this slide and the meaning of each.

Slide 9 and Slide 10: ¡Ahora practica tú!

13. ¿Cómo se dice en español?

- a. I visit you. _____
- b. You watch me _____
- c. You listen to us _____
- d. I can visit you _____
- e. You want to help me _____
- f. She has to listen to us _____